Mrs. Bulah Mabry Meadows.

Mrs. Bulah Mabry Meadows, wife of Tom J. Meadows died at the hospital in Nashville, Monday, May 30, at 9 P. M. Mrs. Meadows was taken ill three weeks ago and after an operation her condition appeared hopeful until Sunday, when a change for the worse was noted, death following in a few hours.

The remains, accompanied by Mr. Meadows and children, Rev. and Mrs. Frank Harlow, Mrs. Mary Mabry, Miss Mildred Mabry and Jay Mabry arrived in Gainesboro Tuesday afternoon, and was conveyed to the old homestead at Bennets Ferry. Funeral service was held Wednesday, conducted by Rev. Harlow, pastor of the 17th street Christian. Interment in the private cemetery near the home.

Mrs. Meadows was 37 years old and is survived by her husband, three children, Comer, age 14, Mabry, age 12, Mary Joe, age 8; her mother, Mrs. Mary Mabry; four brothers, Savage, Will, Jay and Calvin Mabry; and four sisters, Mrs. West, Mrs. Kyle, Misses Sallie and Mildred Mabry.

Mrs. Meadows was a devoted and loyal member of the 17th St., Christian church, Nashville, and a loving wife, mother and daughter. Her place in the home and church cannot be filled, but the Christian life she has lived gives her loved ones the assurance that they can all be united in heaven, if they will follow Jesus as she did.

The sympathy of a large number of friends is extended to the bereaved ones.

Beautiful Home Wedding.

A wedding of unusual interest to a wide circle of friends, was that of Miss Bertha Murphy and Mounce Moss, which was beautiful solemnized at the bride's home on Sugar Creek Wednesday, June 1, at high noon, Dave Hall, justice of the peace, officiating.

The bride was beautiful in a bridal gown of white Crepe de Chine. Her traveling suit was blue with hat to match.

A reception was tendered the bridal party at the home of the groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Moss left on the four o'clock train for Nashville, Hopkinsville, Ky., Cincinnati, and Akron, Ohio. They will make their home in Akron, where Mr. Moss has been employed some time. They were accompanied to the railroad by Velma Murphy and Harold Copeland of Hilham.

The bride is the beautiful and accomplished young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Murphy of Sugar Creek and possesses many rare traits of character, which has endeared her to the home and a wide circle of friends.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stant Moss, and is a young man of sterling character. He served with distinction overseas in the world war.

The Sentinel joins their many friends in extending congratulations.

Ship and Sail under the Stars and Stripes to all parts of the world

SHIPS with the Stars and Stripes blowing from their masts are once more sailing the seven seas. They are, by the Merchant Marine Act, 1920, ultimately to be owned and operated privately by citizens of the United States.

They are American ships, carrying passengers and, as President Harding has said, "carrying our cargoes in American bottoms to the marts of the world." Keep our splendid ships on the seven seas under the Stars and Stripes by sailing and shipping on them.

We got you, Steve!!

WE have always yearned to run a newspaper "column"—just sit back and publish other people's contributions. And here "Steve" comes across with a contributed advertisement, and saves us some work. He keeps his name and address a secret—but good work, Steve, say we. "You satisfy."

THREE YEARS ago.

I TRIED a cigarette.

THAT I'D seen advertised.

AND I didn't like it.

NOT A tall, not a tall.

YESTERDAY I ran short.

AND HAD to sponge.

AND ALL I could get.

WAS A Chesterfield.

NOW I didn't fancy.

A CHESTERFIELD.

FOR, SAYS I.

WASN'T THAT the kind.

I TRIED and passed up.

THREE YEARS ago?

BUT ANYHOW I took one.

AND NOW I know.

MY BIG mistake.

FOR ALL the while.

I SMOKED it.

I FOUND myself.

SAYING, "BY golly.

THEY DO satisfy."

"STEVE."

STEVE took no chance at all. "Satisfy" is in the Chesterfield blend—sure thing. No use looking anywhere else for "satisfy" either, because the satisfy-blend is a secret—it can't be copied.
